Volume XXVII.

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO, NOVEMBER 13, 1862

THE UNMEANT REBUKE.

Charles Nelson had reached his thirty-fifth year, and at that age he found himself going down hill. He had once been one of the happiest of mortals, and no blessing was wanted to complete the sum of his happiness .-He had one of the best wives, and his children were intelligent and comely.— He was a carpenter by trade, and man could command better wages, or be more sure of work. If any man at-tempted to build a house, Charles Nelson must boss the job, and for miles around the people sought him to do work for them. But a change had come over his life. A demon had met on the way, and he had turned stricker back with evil spirit. A new and ex-perienced carpenter had been sent for by those who could no longer depend upon Nelson, and he had settled in the village, and now took Nelson's place.

On a back street, where the great trees threw their green branches over the way, stood a small cottage which had been the pride of the inmates .-Before it stretched a wide garden, but tall rank grass grew up among the choking flowers, and the paling of the fence was broken in many places. The house itself had once been white, but it was now dingy and dark. Bright green blinds had been taken off and sold. And the windows themselves bespoke poverty and neglect, for in many places the glass was gone, and shingles, rags and old hats had taken its place. A single lock at the house and its accompaniments told the whole story. It was a drunkard's house.

Within, sata woman yet in her early years of life, and though she was still gone from her cheek, and the brightness had faded from her eyes. Poor Mary Nelson! Once she had been the happiest among the happy, but now Near her sat two children, both girls, and both beautiful in form and features: but their garbs were all patched and worn, and their feet were shoeless .--The cldest was thirteen years of age, and the other, two years younger .--The mother was hearing them recite a grammar lesson, for she had resolved that her children should never grow up in ignorance. They could not attend with her now, were teaching her started homeward. children and praying to God.

Supper time came, and Chas. Telson ing, and thus had earned money last—and handing it to his wife, he enough to find himself in rum for ugly when thus intoxicated.

looking man in the town. In frame he had been tall, stout, compactly and pervery beau-ideal of manly beauty. all was changed now. His noble form was bent, his limbs shrunken and tremulous, and his tace all bloated and disfigured. He was not the man who father. The loving wife had prayed, pose; the husband was bound to the drinking companions of the bar room, and he would not break the bonds.

That evening, Mary Nelson ate no supper, for of all the lood in the house, there was not more than enough for her husband had gone, she went out and picked a few berries, and thus kept her vital energies slive. That night tne poor woman prayed long and earnestly, and her little ones prayed me work?"

Nelson, sought the bar-room as soon as he arose, but he was sick and faint, and would not remain on his stomach. He the grim messenger first."

Then here is my house lying about Mary, he whispered, while the would not remain on his stomach.

"Then here is my house lying about the armost drank very deeply the night before, us in rough timber and boards. I tears ran down his own cheek, 'you and he felt miserable. At length, place it all in your hands and shall are not deceived. I am Charley Nelhowever, he managed to keep down a look to you to finish it. While I can son once more, and will be while I few glasses of hot sling, but the atmos-phere of the bar-room seemed to stifle trust you, you can trust me. Come in-live. Not by any act of mine shall

The poor man had sense enough to I have drawn. know that if he could sleep he'd feel We will not tell you how the stout heard on the previous Monday, while he better, and he had just feeling enough man wept nor how his noble friend lay behind the wall. to wish to keep away from home; so he shed tears to see him thus; but Charles wandered off towards a wood not far Nelson took the plan and having studied wandered off towards a wood not far it for a while, he went out where the from the village, and sank down by a it for a while, he went out where the scales dropped from my eyes then as hunting season at Col. Straighway's from the village, and sank down by a strong the timber stone wall and was soon buried in prostone wall and was soon buried in profound slumber. When he awoke, the sun was shining down bot upon him,
sun was shining down bot upon him,
and raising himself to a sitting posture, and raising himself to a sitting himself to a he gazed about him. He was just on yet, but he arranged the timber, and ers are answered my wile." the point of raising, when his motion gave directions for framing. At night was arrested by the sound of voices he asked his employer if he dared trust near at hand. He looked through a him with a dollar.

'Come. Katy,' said one of these lat- been to day, for you will save me ter girls to her companion, 'let's go money at that." away from here, bec-use if anybody The poor man could not speak his should see us with those girls, they'd thanks in words, but his looks spoke think we played with 'em. Come.'

remonstrated the other. Never mind-we'll come time when those little, ragged, drunk- bread, and a pound of butter, some tea, ard's girls are not here."

throwing her arms around her sister's upon the table.

good, and kind, and loving, and we And handed the child a shilling never hurt anybody. On I wish some- as he spoke, and in a half bewildered body would love us; I should be so state she took the money and hurried think of our noble mother.

he used to dil Don't you remember band. He had not been drinking—she when he used to kiss us and make us so knew it—and yet he had money enough happy? Oh, how I wish he could be to buy rum with if he wanted it .so good to us once more. He is not -- ' What could it mean? Had her prayers must not say anything more. He may be good to us again; if he knew how we loved him, I knew he would -- and Mrs. Nelson set the table out. mother prays to him every day."

shall have by-and-by, for don't you re- been for a long while. There was member that mother told us that she something in his manner that assured might leave us one of these days!— her, and gave her hope.

She said a cold finger was upon her

Just as the clock struck nine, the She said a cold finger was upon her beart, and -- and -- " his wife and children in tears, but he came reeling home. He had worked affected to notice it not. He drew a shilling from his pocket--it was his sounded in days gone by.

The porridge was made nice and not touched it." like some more ' work, and ere long the tood was pre-pared. The husband ate it, and he felt better. He washed and dressed, son had been almost a week without asked Manly in surprise.

for him, and Manly understood them. But the berries are so thick here,' He received his three dollars, and on his way home he stopped and bought sugar, and a piece of beef-steak, and So the two favored ones went away, just one dollar and seventy five cents hand in hand, and Nelly and Nancy left. With this load he went home. Nelson sat down upon the grass and It was some time before he could com-Don't cry, Nancy,' said the eldest, length he went in and set the basket

'Come, Mary,' 'But you are crying Nelly.' brought something home for supply. Oh, I can't help it, sobbed the Here. Nelly, you take the pail and run over to Mr. Brown's and get two quarts

The wife started when she raised Who the cover of the basket, but she dared 'I know-I know Nelly; but that in a dream, and ever and anon she ain't all. Why don't papa love us as would cast a furtive glance at her hus-'--sh, aissyl--sh,' said Nelly, 'you been answered! Oh, how fervently

And then I believe God is good, and After supper Charles arose and said to

'Yes,' answered Nancy, 'I know she to help him arrange some plans for his does, and God must be our Father newhouse, but I will be at home early." 'I know it, but He must be all we still she was far happier than she had well known foot-full was heard strong The words were choked up with and steady. The door opened, and sobs and tears, and the sisters wept Charles entered. His wife cast a quich, yourself or children."

'Mr. Nelson turned towards the door, and would have shaved had his hand rum. He had earned fifteen dollars, shall ever pass my lips Ask me no dollars during the last five days. I more questions, but believe me now am to build Squire Manly's great house, while you see me true. Will you give and he pays me three dollars a day.

A good job isn't it !" 'Charles Nelson, are you in earnest?' Mary looked up, and her lips moved but she could not speak a word. 'So much so, sir, that were death to struggled a lew moments, and then stand upon my right hand, and yonder burst into tears. Her husband took bar-room upon my left, I would go with her by the arm and drew her upon his to my office, and you shall see the plan another cloud cross your brow." And then he wid her of the words he had 'Never before,' he said, 'did I fully

Time passes on, and the cottage as-col. had gone slipped out of thehouse sames its garb of pure white and its to a neighboring inn frequentedly the whole windows and green blinds. The fraternity, changed his clothes fo rags, him, to deliberately place himself our the pale of society, by choosing a climate which success but makes him ing in which success but makes redation the more conspicuous. De shire claims the doleful honor of birth to a notable exception to the the object of sport and ridicule; but in the biget of sport and ridicule; but in feed to bring myself to it! And they their mother was well educated, and their mother was well educated, and their mother was well educated, and spare to their instruction.

For more than two years, Mary Nelform ments he stood with his hands elenched spon had earned all the money that had been used in the house. People hirred been used in the house. People hirred was turned upward, and his elesped hand raised above his head. A moment he remained so, and then his hands of good and clothing. So she articles of food and clothing. So she the she was and the only joys that dwelt in the shelf of the many characters in his varied up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse of deception.

For more than two years, Mary Nelform ments he stood with his hands elenched approach their instruction.

A Word to Mothers in his varied up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone, and hence she awkse on the turnulous emotions that had started up in her bosone. A sterile and potatoes have the work tight in passage to so in the house. People hirred in the was a living who was launted by a vision of buried history of the mired. He was a living who was possed to and from New how and hand to tha home and went at once to a man who 'Mary,' he said, after the supper so as to be better able to pass as one of of the crew of the Bristol ship Griffin, a good or ill of your child, which neither the sufferers. This perverse industry piece of good for the good or ill of your child, which neither the sufferers. was rewarded with an income of a guiner not to make the most. 'Mr. Manly,' he said, addressing the are ten dollars for you, and I want you was rewarded with an income of a guiner gentleman siluded to, I have drank the to expend it in clothing for yourself a day. He especially delighted in de ceiving those who much to have been one day, and his own brother coesed his purse to him all unsuspicious d'ais relationship. A fit of remorse sentlim back to Bickley, where he remaied some little time, apparently contened, and the worthy rector began to hopeto see him yet a credit to his tamily ; ut his truant disposition proved too strog;

one day he disappeared without a leaetaking, and returned with renewed alish to his vagrant life.

Carew owed no lutle of the impmity attending his roguish practices whe good nature of the western gentry who seemed to have thought with thepoet, that the pleasure was as great in bein cheated as to cheat, and treate th rector's son with more familiarity than lowing the hounds, but as soons the

A VERY GREAT VAGABOND.

Straightway's residence, and the goodpursuaged the Control of the Tyne to introduce he material gentleman actually took great in the Tyne to introduce he material to explain how he could get mater and in this guise prose ouse has lived to become the diagace there by the short-cut. Carew profited suit, and with such success, the family, and earn for himselfthe by this advice, so as to get there in time lady consented to clope with esignation of "a thorough vagaboid."

to change his appearance again. At Bath, where the indissoluble Straightway's residence, and the good- pursuaded the captain of a vessel? designation of "a thorough vagabod." to change his appearance of "a thorough vagabod." to change his appearance of the Calonel if he the spectability to utter disreputablenes is bad met a miserable object on the road. Separally gradual. It is somethingness "A very miserable object, indeed." said to common for a well-born, gently nurted the Colonel. Careful made a clean vouth, with an honorable career better breast of its said been so deceived till not believe the Colonel could be a deliberately place himself out of the colonel to deliberately place himself out of the colonel out of the colonel could be a deliberately place himself out of the colonel could be a deliberat through a boyish escapade. The schol- chorus which announced her arrival set ew was elected king almost unanimoushappy days Carew and his companions "grandmother of the three helpless loys contributions of his subjects; un inflicted so much damage to a field of children," (two borrowed from a beg- happily for himself, he only sought to than await the certain punishment of been burned to death at the dreadful gref, for, falling into the clutches of had such school-uses as we have, there salety from pedagogues and parents with tress, who sent out half-a-crown and a their monarch in particular, he was their cash to home. sobs and tears, and the sisters wept long together. At length they arose and went away, for they saw more children coming.

As soon as the little ones were out of As soon as As soon as the little ones were out of He had been to the barber's and to the sight, Charles Nelson started to his batter's. Yet nothing was said upon good," and after going through a certan that every one of them bestowed somethet. His hands were clenched, and the all-important subject. Charles probation, the head-strong quartete thing upon her. The broth finished, and laughingly told Master Davy, the were admitted into the fraternity, and his wife went instructed in the arter transport to the beldam departed, invoking blessings owner of the ship which was to carry with him. In the morning the hus. instructed in the art of preying upon the on the kind gentlemen; but as soon as him to slavery, that he would be back common school, for thoughtless chil dren sneered at them and made them the object of sport and ridicule; but in this respect they did not suffer, for this respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the object of the respect they did not suffer, for the respect to the respect they did not suffer, for the respect to the res enough to find himself in rum for several days. As he stumbled into the house, the children crouched close to their mother, and she even shrank their mother, and she even shrank away, for sometimes her husband was say, for sometimes her husband was sounded in days gone by.

Nell over to tell Mrs. Bixby that you ging, and deform from the find himself in rum for him some milk and flour, and make him some porridge. The wife was startled by the tone in which this was spoken, for it sounded just as that voice had sounded in days gone by.

Nell over to tell Mrs. Bixby that you ging, and der her deeply circumspect, and prayer ful, and faithful in her solemn work of are not. Here is a dollar, and you robust frame enabled him to endure by the measured for their coats, be we? In the minds of children for heaven are not. Here is a dollar, and wherever by the terror-stricken seaman with some fill over to tell Mrs. Bixby that you ging, and der her deeply circumspect, and prayer ful, and faithful in her solemn work of are not. Here is a dollar, and wherever by the terror-stricken seaman with some fill over to tell Mrs. Bixby that you ging, and der her deeply circumspect, and prayer ful, and faithful in her solemn work of the moust frame enabled him to endure to house, the children for heaven are not. Here is a dollar, and wherever by the tore is a dollar, and wherever by the terror-stricken seaman with some milk and flour, and make him some milk and flour, and prayer ful, and faithful in her solemn work of the moust for the terror stricken seaman with some milk and flour, and prayer ful, and faithful in her deeply circumspect, and prayer ful, and faithful in her deeply circumspect, and prayer ful, and faithful in her deeply circumspect, and prayer ful, and faithful in her deeply circumspect, and prayer ful, and faithful in her deeply circumspect, and prayer limbs, he slept as soundly as the veriest His first efforts were vain; and finding ceptible and easily impressed. A sluggard could desire. He was, in the ship was about to sink, he sprang word, a look, a frown, may engrave ah O, how that man had changed within nourishing, and Charles ate it all. He two years! Once there was not a finer two years! Once there was not a finer went to bed early, and early on the following the stage parlance, an excellent dresser, into the sea. Strong swimmer as he impression on the mind of a child and his hand was upon the latch. He stage parlance, an excellent dresser, into the sea. Strong swimmer as he impression on the mind of a child impression of the mind of a child impression on the mind of a child impression on the mind of a chil lowing day he was up. He asked his not speak, but he opened his arms, as his clothes; his wit was always the difficulties was near proving fatal to wash out. You walk along the sea-ministers, lawyers and doctors than wife if she had milk and flour enough and his wife sank upon his bosome, ready, his invention fertile, while his him; as it was, he was thrown, bruised shore when the tide is out, and you her in a seat, he left the house. When self by his mistortunes, and might truly supposed he was one of the crew of the has spread out so clear and beautiful "Then if you are willing, I should like some more"

The wife moved quickly about the The went to his work that morning, he say, "no man went through such a se vessel they saw go down; he was carlied into the house of a charitable lady. The wife moved quickly about the talking and acting as though Charles to the was not, like most com-whose attention soon brought him round. The was not allowed to say about the gals. Their ma'affired the went to his work that morning, he stroy in substitutes, and might tury supposed he was one of the crew of the has spread out so clear and beautiful has spread out monplace imposters, content with re-Of course he did not disclose his true efface foreyer all that you have written. had never been unfortunate at all.

It was Saturday evening, and Nel- peaking a sterectype form of appeal; he character, and was rewarded for his Not these lines and character of truth, or took the trouble to visit the scene of any daring and discretion by sundry gifts, error, which your conduct imprints on gowins; they stay home and read, it ad calamity likely to be talked about, and and a certificate from a magistrate, setbeen steady enough. He left his ten of which he had now in his pocket, make himself master of all the details, ting forth that he was the sole survivor home and went at once to a man who Mary. he said, after the supper so as to be better able to pass as one of the crew of the Bristol ship Griffic a good or ill of your child. There you write impressions for the everlasting wat the pudding and hire dress-make ra.

gentieman anuded to, I have drank the last drop of alcoholic beverage that shall ever pass my lips. Ask me no more questions, but believe me now more questions, but believe me now am to build Squire Manly's great house, while you see me true. Will you give known to his grace as Bamiylde Moore serious and how earnest to write the Carew, shipwrecked on his way to England, in a Swedish ship, of which he was supercargo. The name was famil silent in death, and her lips no longer iar to the duke as that of a good family; move in prayer in his behalf, in comto his relations in his need, that all suspicion was disarmed. Not content with picton was disarmed. Not content with inviting the impostor to dinner, the duke ordered his barber to shave, and his valet to dress him, and dinner over, collected a handsome sum among his friends. Being called away, his grace insisted upon Carew's staying the night, and gave strict injunctions to his serve ants to make him comfortable. It would seem that they did not make him comfortable enough for the made some expenses of males, in Michingan 40,000 excess of males; in Texas cuse to leave the house, and made his way to a public house patronized by vagrants, where he spent the night in he started to Salisbury as the ship-wrecked supercargo, "upper ten" lib-erally subscribed for the ducal protege. with to do the house-work!

Fear and superstition got the better of resentment; and to preserve his own with to do the house-work!

During one of his predstory excurnear at hand. He looked through a chink in the wall, and just upon the other side his two children picking berries, a little further off were two more girls, the children of the carpenter who had lately moved into the village.

The fraternity, changed his clothes fo rage, roses in the garden smiled and in every borrowed a pair of crutches, an went sions. Carew saw and was smitten by a sions. Carew saw and was smitten by a countries raisemore than their quots of way did the improvement work. Once in search of his entertainer. He was surgeon. Wisely judging that the wild again was Mary Nelson among the happing of the carpenter who be credited to them by the Lord for the piest of the happy, and her children of the carpenter who had lately moved into the village.

The buispess man who refuses countries raisemore than their quots of way did the improvement work. Once in search of his entertainer. He was surgeon. Wisely judging that the wild again was Mary Nelson among the happing of our states, or cities, or roses in the garden smilled and in every borrowed a pair of crutches, an went sions. Carew saw and was smitten by a countries raisemore than their quots of way did the improvement work. Once in search of his entertainer. He was surgeon. Wisely judging that the wild again was Mary Nelson among the happy and her children of the carpenter who be credited to them by the Lord for the piets of the happy, and her children of the carpenter who be credited to them by the Lord for the beautiful or the piets of the barrow of the carpenter who have a surgeon. Wisely judging that the wild again was Mary Nelson among the happy and her children of the carpenter who have countries raisemore than their quots of the building of the countries raisemore than their quots of the building of the countries. The piet of the building of the countries raisemore than their quots of the surgeon. Wisely judging that the wild again was Mary Nelson among the happy and her children of the carpental piet of the building of the countries raisemor is own din- worthy clergyman, while he oper

he hi was shown into the room in which the turning to Bath, not as a gentleman, is the nerson of one a hundred hi was shown into the room in while turning to bath, but as an old cripple, and finding philethe guests, a Mr. Pleydell, expressing sophical sinusement in contrasting the scholars, have they? Why didn't the and as is the wont in country places on he was certainly mistaken on the latter saluted him, spurned him from their big school-houses all over town, chock cussion led to severel wagers being latting out for the church, the child's godfathers. Hugh Bamfylde, Esq., and on the matter. As Carew was departant for the day was christened Bamfyld Moore again on a certain day at another place.

As soon as he reached a fitting age.

As soon as he reached a fitting age.

As soon as he reached a fitting age.

Tiverton the church, the child's godcussion led to severel wagers being latting before, denied a glass of water; the closet. The committee man in his reclergy passed him with supercilious brows; and the ladies, who had been eager to dance with the handsome bridethe day was christened Bamfyld Moore again on a certain day at another place.
When the day came round, an old wo"shocking creature." However, he consoled himself for the change by mak Tiverton the church, the child's godcussion led to severel wagers being latting before, denied a glass of water; the closet. The committee man in his reclergy passed him with supercilious brows; and the ladies, who had been eager to dance with the handsome brideto dance with the handsome brideto would find the same party together again on a certain day at another place.
When I was a boy, there were two

"When I was a boy, there were two

"When I was a boy, there were two

where she would find the hidden wealth, on a stormy evening when a vessel was no more. That history each mother and decamped before his dupe could wrecked, he swam to her, to find only will meet again and meet with eternal ought to We ought to feed and clother 'Are you willing to obey me once test the value of the information. After one of the crew left alive. A few hurore!"

'O—yes"

'Then work for me to-day.

Send attaining proficiency in the art of beghe ship's name, the captain's name.

One will meet again and meet with eternal ought to. We ought to will meet again and meet with eternal ought to. We ought to. We ought to. We ought to the poor, but we ain't obliged to give the poor, but we ain't obliged to give the most turkey and champaigne every on the mind of every mother, and rendered them to Huntington's to Nell over to tell Mrs. Bixby that you ging, and before long, he stood without her port of departure, destination, and der her deeply circumspect, and prayer-

Perhaps Carew's boldest exploit was erase, nor the slow moving ages of to it. I move the town makes at a ap-

IN THE UNITED STATES - According to every reader at least to the nking .- [Ed fortable enough, for he made some ex-cuse to leave the house, and made his making merry at the duke's expense in Old gents, cut out this and passes, and support makety."

more senses than one. Next morning, in your hats. The only way to cure makety."

Pear and support the better

POPULAR "EDUCATION." TRCLE LER'S VIRWS. "Ringbolt," the pleasant correspond uneration of the Scho made a characteristic speech, which is Towards the end of the year 1693, his gratification at being introduced to scorn with which he was treated then, the rector of Bickley, the Rev. Theo- one he had heard so much of, but had with the difference paid to him on his dore Carew, had a son born to him, never seen, Carew informed him that former visit. "The rich, who before eddication is run in the ground. Great their their their than their them." and as is the wont in country places on such occasions, rich and poor united in point, as he had presented him a few path; the gamsters overlooked him, as rejoicing at the happiness of their pautor, and on the day of christening, guines. This announcement led to a man, instead of an obsequious "Please feasting and merry making enlivened debate as to the possibility of Mr. Pleythe usually sed-ste village. Before setting out for the church, the child's goding out for the church that the manufacture of the church the church the child's goding out for the church the churc young Carew was sent to Tiverton she was old, ugly, and decripit, her ing his second stay in the city as profitSchool, where his progress was sufficiently rapid to satisfy his master, and fill his friends with hope for his future of career. These were crueily frustrated included in the first had been pleasent, and care through the consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared at the house in question; consoled himself for the change by man appeared to help him arrange some plans for his arrange some plans for his new house, but I will be at home early."

As soon as he reached a uting age.

A pang shotthrough the wife's heart as she saw her husband turn away, but he had a she saw her husband turn away, but he had a she saw her husband turn away, but he had a she saw her husband turn away, but he had a she saw her husband turn away, but he had a she saw her husband turn away, but he had a she saw her husband turn away, but he husband turn away, but he had a she saw her husband turn away, but he had a she saw her husband turn away, but he husband turn away had a she saw her husband turn away, but he husband turn away had a she saw her husband turn away had a she saw her husband turn away, but he husband turn away had a she saw her husband turn away had a good. Boys are dressed up too much wheat that the irritated farmer conplained to the head-master. Rather than await the certain punishment of The gentleman says, "If out South they their missleed. Carew and three other fire at Kirton," told her pitiful tale, one Justice Lethbridge who had an an-of wealth by democratic institutions."

That don't look to me quite honest.— Now. I believe that every boy should be eddicated. That is he should be think they know more'n their fathers and mothers. They most all want to ness, I guess about nine out of ten business men bust up. It is a grab game, any way, and there sin't much apiece wear calicoes-they wear silks. Ther r ma'ams sweep out the house, mak e extra bills for the boys and gals; as the town eddlestes 'em and puts 'et ap going to the people of Philade phia-to the Members of the City Councils -and even to the Board of School Controllers-asking it for a deliberate and the sham supercargo gave such excellent reasons why he could not apply nant God. upon our present hot bed, system of PROPORTION OF MALES AND FRMALES education, which it is hop ad will bring:

An astrologer of the 15th century baving foretold the death of a beautiful woman, whom Louis XI, loved, and who happened to die raccording to his prediction, the king was so enraged that he ordered him into his presence. "You, who foresee aft," said Louis, "tell me when you yourself shall die."
The man, who without being a conjuror perceiving the anger of the bing.

"I shall die three days before you the astrologer.